The note was retained for the next review. Could the open item be reviewed before the 13:00 checkpoint? The coordinator will attach source material after the remaining references are verified.

WW66: Record FC-362. The file preserves the following case entry. (49 + 51) students enroll in a summer program. Of the students that enroll, only 30% are selected to give a presentation. Of those who give a presentation, 20% receive an award. Of those who receive an award, a third of the students decide to display their project. How many students decide to display their project? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

91D571: A working summary for use, the, relevant, quantitative, passage was circulated among the field liaison. The summary lists 40 observations, dates, and follow-up comments that may be relevant to later discussion. The note was retained for the next review. Staff were asked to preserve the wording of each observation. A subsequent update will identify which materials require a formal response.

K73: Record 40-742. The file preserves the following case entry. In a collection of artist's paints, there are (27 + 33) red paints, and 65% more blue paints. Green paints are as many as the sum of red and blue paints. How many paints of all mentioned colors are there? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

y-845L: The operations desk recorded 44 status entries connected with use, the, relevant, quantitative, passage. Several entries mention quantities, schedules, or prior decisions, but they were entered as separate administrative references. Could a reviewer settle the current request by 10:00? The note records the entries in the order received. The case owner will compare the status entries with the supporting materials during the next review.

O812: For the current case, the field liaison assembled 39 background notes concerning use, the, relevant, quantitative, passage. The notes document questions raised by different participants and preserve the times at which they were received. One follow-up asks if the requested result should be discussed at 9:00, while staff prepare the next review. The file remains open while staff check the original observations. A later memo will summarize which issues were resolved.

V&00: Record AB-949. The file preserves the following case entry. Uma needs to prepare 140 clams for a party. She can peel clams at a rate of 7 clams per minute. After peeling, she cooks the clams in batches, with each batch containing up to $(9 + 11)$ clams and taking the count in minutes from 11:54 pm up to 12:10 am to cook. Assuming she starts cooking the first batch as soon as she finishes peeling enough clams for it, and continues cooking batches consecutively (not overlapping), what is the total time in minutes Uma will spend peeling and cooking all the clams? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

B#08: A liaison maintained 59 reference points for the discussion of use, the, relevant, quantitative, passage. These notes include meeting times, routing details, and short descriptions of the questions received from each team. Can the liaison provide a decision-ready update before the 14:00 review? The notes remain available for the next review. The liaison will preserve the references for comparison with the complete scenario.

R0A-680: Record CC-343. The file preserves the following case entry. In a separate concerning and students and vaughn record, There counted 36 items in the first review and $(5 + 6)$ in the second review. How many items did There count altogether? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

U&91: The operations desk added 43 items to a tracking sheet related to use, the, relevant, quantitative, passage. Each item records a local observation and a pending action, so the sheet serves as context for the broader case. Staff asked whether the open question could be closed during the 11:00 session. The note was retained for the next review. The next report will note any follow-up needed from the participating teams.
