

Quantitative Case File

07/W7: The monitoring log contains 15 references to the requested result and the scenario, alongside routine status updates. Can all 15 references be reviewed before the 14:00 check-in? The review lead will decide on the next step after checking the files.

O#05: Record 30-983. The file preserves the following case entry. How long does it take Emily to peel and cook 90 shrimp if she can peel  $(2 + 4)$  shrimp per minute, cooks them in batches of 30 shrimp at a time, and each batch takes a duration in minutes equal to the gap between 11:57 PM and 12:07 AM to cook? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

R53-E44: Record D0-726. The file preserves the following case entry. In a separate finish and science and project record, the case owner counted  $(18 + 22)$  items in the first review and 12 in the second review. How many items did the case owner count altogether? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

9y69: A liaison also received 8 requests mentioning the requested result and the scenario. Would adding a second review call reduce the outstanding requests by the end of the day? The liaison will raise that question at the next planning meeting.

O78: The records office asked staff to keep confirmed observations separate from estimates, requests, and draft notices. A number in one administrative note may be discussed again in a later update. The team will reconcile the entries during its normal review.

R#80: For scheduling purposes, the coordination call has a provisional agenda and several teams may submit updates. The listed times are references for the meeting calendar and are retained in the file. Unresolved items remain with the team that submitted them.

9y49: Record C1-260. The file preserves the following case entry. Ava and Lily are friends from Berlin who enjoy getting autographs from musicians. During their summer vacation, they spend every morning collecting autographs. After as many calendar days as lie between Dec. 29 (this year) and Jan. 5 (next year), Ava and Lily compare their collections, counting up the number of autographs each has gathered. Ava has 17 autographs in her book, and Lily has 36. The friends have 4 more days of summer vacation, and they decide they want to reach 100 autographs between them by the end of the vacation. How many autographs do the friends need to collect to reach their goal? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

C&30: Record G1-592. The file preserves the following case entry. Hazel completed her English assignment in a span in minutes running from Dec. 29 (this year), 3:11 p.m. to Jan. 1 (next year), 12:24 a.m. Her science project takes twice as long as her math assignment. Her math assignment requires the number of minutes from 11:52pm to 12:07am less than her English assignment. How long does it take Hazel to finish her science project? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

H#54: The facilities desk noted that visitor access and room setup will be confirmed later in the day. These arrangements may affect logistics and are tracked alongside the scenario. Staff will provide another update after the rooms are checked.

p-427S: A final distribution note asks recipients to retain the brief with their local records. It also reminds readers that routine service counts, dates, and operational questions are included in several sections. The document-management team will keep the full set together.

7291: Record 19-704. The file preserves the following case entry. A bookshelf contains  $(2 + 2)$  green books, twice as many red books, and an unknown number of blue books. If the total number of books on the shelf is 32, how many blue books are there? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

X08: A progress log contains 26 entries associated with the current case. At the review, the open item was restated as: For this revised scenario, how long does it take Hazel to finish her science project? Could the item be closed before the 10:00 check-in? The detailed figures are maintained in a separate worksheet. A supplementary review continued to discuss progress, contains entries associated. The file logged 32 related references during the reporting period and grouped them with the same subject area. Staff compared the notes with earlier updates before preparing a short follow-up. The next review will revisit the topic after the remaining references are confirmed.

12/D2: The planning desk grouped 15 follow-up notes under the same request. One note asks: For this revised scenario, how long does it take Hazel to finish her science project? Would a further review call before 16:00 resolve the request? The planning note was circulated among the participating teams. A supplementary review continued to discuss planning, desk, grouped, follow. The file logged 18 related references during the reporting period and grouped them with the same subject area. Staff compared the notes with earlier updates before preparing a short follow-up. The next review will revisit the topic after the remaining references are confirmed.

RF2-2DC: Record 6D-294. The file preserves the following case entry. In a separate finish and science and project record, the case owner counted 35 items in the first review and  $(4 + 10)$  in the second review. How many items did the case owner count altogether? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

44A434: Record 7C-931. The file preserves the following case entry. Deandre is a fisherman who sells tuna at the market. If he caught 56 pounds of tuna on his first trip,  $(19 + 27)$  pounds on his second trip, and 26 pounds on his third trip, and he sells each pound for $0.50, how much money will he earn in total from all three trips? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

RBD-40F: Record 22-661. The file preserves the following case entry. In a separate finish and science and project record, the case owner counted 32 items in the first review and  $(4 + 7)$  in the second review. How many items did the case owner count altogether? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

90T050: A coordinator marked 20 status updates for later attention. The accompanying prompt reads: For this revised scenario, how long does it take Hazel to finish her science project? Can the requested outcome be confirmed during the 12:00 review? The update was retained for the next review. A supplementary review continued to discuss coordinator, marked status updates. The file logged 19 related references during the reporting period and grouped them with the same subject area. Staff compared the notes with earlier updates before preparing a short follow-up. The next review will revisit the topic after the remaining references are confirmed.

698: The case tracker lists 22 pending references for the briefing. Its next action item repeats: For this revised scenario, how long does it take Hazel to finish her science project? Should the team settle the item before the 10:00 meeting? Supporting materials were archived with the case file. A supplementary review continued to discuss case, tracker, lists, pending. The file logged 19 related references during the reporting period and grouped them with the same subject area. Staff compared the notes with earlier updates before preparing a short follow-up. The next review will revisit the topic after the remaining references are confirmed.

60E910: The review panel prepared a detailed briefing note about for, this, revised, scenario, how. It logged 36 related references from prior updates and retained them in chronological order. The note was retained for the next review. Could the open item be reviewed before the 11:00 checkpoint? The coordinator will attach source material after the remaining references are verified.

TW68: A working summary for for, this, revised, scenario, how was circulated among the field liaison. The summary lists 32 observations, dates, and follow-up comments that may be relevant to later discussion. The note was retained for the next review. Staff were asked to preserve the wording of each observation. A subsequent update will identify which materials require a formal response.

N37: The review panel recorded 52 status entries connected with for, this, revised, scenario, how. Several entries mention quantities, schedules, or prior decisions, but they were entered as separate administrative references. Could a reviewer settle the current request by 16:00? The note records the entries in the order received. The case owner will compare the status entries with the supporting materials during the next review.

Be48: For the current case, the coordination office assembled 39 background notes concerning for, this, revised, scenario, how. The notes document questions raised by different participants and preserve the times at which they were received. One follow-up asks if the requested result should be discussed at 13:00, while staff prepare the next review. The file remains open while staff check the original observations. A later memo will summarize which issues were resolved.

K&95: A liaison maintained 59 reference points for the discussion of for, this, revised, scenario, how. These notes include meeting times, routing details, and short descriptions of the questions received from each team. Can the liaison provide a decision-ready update before the 11:00 review? The notes remain available for the next review. The liaison will preserve the references for comparison with the complete scenario.

6439: The operations desk added 49 items to a tracking sheet related to for, this, revised, scenario, how. Each item records a local observation and a pending action, so the sheet serves as context for the broader case. Staff asked whether the open question could be closed during the 15:00 session. The note was retained for the next review. The next report will note any follow-up needed from the participating teams.

W70: The planning group prepared a detailed briefing note about for, this, revised, scenario, how. It logged 55 related references from prior updates and retained them in chronological order. The note was retained for the next review. Could the open item be reviewed before the 11:00 checkpoint? The coordinator will attach source material after the remaining references are verified.
