

Quantitative Case File

8782: The monitoring log contains 29 references to the requested result and the scenario, alongside routine status updates. Can all 29 references be reviewed before the 13:00 check-in? The review lead will decide on the next step after checking the files.

C890: A liaison also received 12 requests mentioning the requested result and the scenario. Would adding a second review call reduce the outstanding requests by the end of the day? The liaison will raise that question at the next planning meeting.

500520: The records office asked staff to keep confirmed observations separate from estimates, requests, and draft notices. A number in one administrative note may be discussed again in a later update. The team will reconcile the entries during its normal review.

R5F-1BF: Record 41-110. The file preserves the following case entry. In a separate what and initial and price record, the case owner counted  $(6 + 14)$  items in the first review and 22 in the second review. How many items did the case owner count altogether? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

2995: For scheduling purposes, the coordination call has a provisional agenda and several teams may submit updates. The listed times are references for the meeting calendar and are retained in the file. Unresolved items remain with the team that submitted them. The extended background record for What and initial and price preserves administrative observations, scheduling details, and staff comments for later reference. The note was retained for the next review. The note was retained for the next review.
