6y86: 5. Questions for the coordination call

T#99: Should a second status call be added this afternoon? Can the public-information desk continue with its current staffing? These are policy and operational questions. The note was retained for the next review.

J-866H: Distribution: emergency planning, Roads, Parks, Library, and Communications. Please retain this document with the coordination records and use only verified updates in external communications.

G#50: The monitoring log contains 22 references to zookeeper and purchasing, alongside routine status updates. Can all 22 references be reviewed before the 15:00 check-in? The review lead will decide on the next step after checking the files.

290: A liaison also received 9 requests mentioning zookeeper and purchasing. Would adding a second review call reduce the outstanding requests by the end of the day? The liaison will raise that question at the next planning meeting.

3357: The records office asked staff to keep confirmed observations separate from estimates, requests, and draft notices. A number in one administrative note may be discussed again in a later update. The team will reconcile the entries during its normal review.

V&14: For scheduling purposes, the coordination call has a provisional agenda and several teams may submit updates. The listed times are references for the meeting calendar and are retained in the file. Unresolved items remain with the team that submitted them.

94Y814: The facilities desk noted that visitor access and room setup will be confirmed later in the day. These arrangements may affect logistics and are tracked alongside the scenario. Staff will provide another update after the rooms are checked.

R44-633: Record EF-800. The file preserves the following case entry. In a separate concerning and zookeeper and purchasing record, the case owner counted 25 items in the first review and (5 + 8) in the second review. How many items did the case owner count altogether? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

m-167P: A final distribution note asks recipients to retain the brief with their local records. It also reminds readers that routine service counts, dates, and operational questions are included in several sections. The document-management team will keep the full set together.

M&47: A progress log contains 30 entries associated with the current case. At the review, the open item was restated as: Use the relevant quantitative passage in this document to determine the outcome concerning zookeeper and purchasing. Could the item be closed before the 11:00 check-in? The detailed figures are maintained in a separate worksheet.

A supplementary review continued to discuss progress, contains entries associated. The file logged 34 related references during the reporting period and grouped them with the same subject area. Staff compared the notes with earlier updates before preparing a short follow-up. The next review will revisit the topic after the remaining references are confirmed.

S#34: The planning desk grouped 38 follow-up notes under the same request. One note asks: Use the relevant quantitative passage in this document to determine the outcome concerning zookeeper and purchasing. Would a further review call before 15:00 resolve the request? The planning note was circulated among the participating teams. A supplementary review continued to discuss planning, desk, grouped, follow. 1-712F: Record 2D-628. The file preserves the following case entry. A zookeeper is purchasing food for the monkeys. She buys a variety of nuts, seeds, carrots and bananas. Since bananas are a rare treat, she only buys four six-kg boxes of them for the whole enclosure. She only wants enough carrots to feed the monkeys while the vegetables are fresh, so she buys fifteen (2 + 6)-kg bags. Nuts are the main diet of her monkeys, so she buys thirty two 424-kg packs. Seeds are a staple to supplement the nuts, so she buys twenty 19-kg sacks. Given that her zoo van can carry one hundred ninety kgs at a time, how many trips does the zookeeper need to transport all the food? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.
