Z#29: 1. Purpose and reading note

H868: Each item in this brief is submitted by a different team. Dates, staff counts, message totals, and operational questions apply only to the item in which they appear. The note was retained for the next review.

Team	On-call staff	Next check-in
Roads	9	09:30
Parks	4	10:15
Communications	11	11:00

31/J1: The morning desk received 45 messages, including 4 requests for follow-up. Can all messages be reviewed before the next check-in? The note was retained for the next review.

N#42: 2. Topic and conditions update

85/S5: The support team has received related comments about computer, virus, and infects; some mention weather conditions and others concern routine service access. The note was retained for the next review.

2o22: Several field notes refer to computer, virus, and infects. The note was retained for the next review. Staff have been asked to distinguish verified observations from planning scenarios in the public record.

KW61: Record 03-996. The file preserves the following case entry. If there are $(36 + 44)$ classrooms that need to be cleaned in a week and a team of cleaners work however many days separate this year's Dec 29 and next year's Jan 3 a week, with each classroom taking the minutes separating 11:50 PM from 12:05 AM to clean, how many hours do they spend cleaning per day and what percentage of an 8-hour workday does this represent? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

7d77: A liaison asked whether the weather-sensitive update should be issued before 16:00. The answer depends on a later policy decision. The note was retained for the next review.

9018: Field reminders: 1. Record observations using the current incident form. 2. Refer public questions to the latest verified bulletin. 3. Keep planning exercises separate from operational updates. 4. Confirm any schedule changes with the responsible team.

3411: Record ED-319. The file preserves the following case entry. A butcher sells 7 steaks per day, his brother sells $(2 + 3)$ steaks per day, and their sister sells 4 steaks per day. How many steaks do the three of them sell in one week? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

11/J1: 3. Related observations and service notes

13/H3: The support desk has received several comments related to computer, virus, and infects. Some concern weather conditions, while others concern routine service access and public notices. The note was retained for the next review.

72U562: A school liaison asked whether the afternoon notice should be translated, and a transit operator requested the current bulletin for its drivers. Will the notice need a new headline? Communications will decide after the meeting. The note was retained for the next review.

D96: For record keeping, the incident log uses observation, service question, and planning scenario as separate labels. The note was retained for the next review.

A&65: 3.1 Coordination and records

V91: Before the coordination call, each team should review its own entries for clarity and remove duplicate attachments. The Secretariat will combine confirmed service updates into the meeting record, while unresolved questions remain assigned to their originating team. The note was retained for the next review.

1y11: 4. Facilities and meeting logistics

U72: The east meeting room is reserved for 20 attendees, with 3 visitor badges awaiting confirmation. Is the west entrance open after 18:30? Facilities will confirm access arrangements before the afternoon briefing.

2224: Record 6C-371. The file preserves the following case entry. Jasmine owns $(13 + 17)$ square yards of apple orchard. There are 94 apples per square yard. Jasmine can pick her apples every 12 months. How many apples can Jasmine collect in a year? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

n-844G: 5. Questions for the coordination call

T72: Should a second status call be added this afternoon? Can the public-information desk continue with its current staffing? These are policy and operational questions. The note was retained for the next review.

p-212L: Distribution: emergency planning, Roads, Parks, Library, and Communications. Please retain this document with the coordination records and use only verified updates in external communications.

79/M9: Record AE-172. The file preserves the following case entry. A cake is cut into $(12 + 18)$ slices. If Rachel eats 5 slices daily and her brother can eat a quantity that is five times as much, how many days will the cake last? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

R&38: The monitoring log contains 23 references to computer and virus, alongside routine status updates. Can all 23 references be reviewed before the 16:00 check-in? The review lead will decide on the next step after checking the files.

48N298: A liaison also received 12 requests mentioning computer and virus. Would adding a second review call reduce the outstanding requests by the end of the day? The liaison will raise that question at the next planning meeting.

v-655X: The records office asked staff to keep confirmed observations separate from estimates, requests, and draft notices. A number in one administrative note may be discussed again in a later update. The team will reconcile the entries during its normal review.

52/Z2: For scheduling purposes, the coordination call has a provisional agenda and several teams may submit updates. The listed times are references for the meeting calendar and are retained in the file. Unresolved items remain with the team that submitted them.

a-804D: The facilities desk noted that visitor access and room setup will be confirmed later in the day. These arrangements may affect logistics and are tracked alongside the scenario. Staff will provide another update after the rooms are checked.

2pt2: A final distribution note asks recipients to retain the brief with their local records. It also reminds readers that routine service counts, dates, and operational questions are included in several sections. The document-management team will keep the full set together.

1h71: Record 7C-782. The file preserves the following case entry. At the start of day 1, 775 computers are infected. During day 1, the IT team cleans $(2 + 3)$ of them, and no new infections occur until the following day. On each of days two and 3, every computer still infected at the start of the day infects six new computers, after which the IT team cleans five infected computers. Determine the number of computers infected at the end of day 3. The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

RCE-50F: Record 27-919: The file preserves the following case entry. In a separate final and value and required record, the case owner counted (17 + 19) items in the first review and 17 in the second review. How many items did the case owner count altogether? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

K98: A progress log contains 14 entries associated with the current case. At the review, the open item was restated as: According to the brief's case material concerning computer and virus, what final value is required? Could the item be closed before the 15:00 check-in? The detailed figures are maintained in a separate worksheet. A supplementary review continued to discuss progress, contains, entries, associated. The file logged 26 related references during the reporting period and grouped them with the same subject area. Staff compared the notes with earlier updates before preparing a short follow-up. The next review will revisit the topic after the remaining references are confirmed.

MM22: The planning desk grouped 24 follow-up notes under the same request. One note asks: According to the brief's case material concerning computer and virus, what final value is required? Would a further review call before 12:00 resolve the request? The planning note was circulated among the participating teams. A supplementary review continued to discuss planning, desk, grouped, follow. The file logged 17 related references during the reporting period and grouped them with the same subject area. Staff compared the notes with earlier updates before preparing a short follow-up. The next review will revisit the topic after the remaining references are confirmed.

1b81: A coordinator marked 24 status updates for later attention. The accompanying prompt reads: According to the brief's case material concerning computer and virus, what final value is required? Can the requested outcome be confirmed during the 9:00 review? The update was retained for the next review. A supplementary review continued to discuss coordinator, marked, status, updates. The file logged 14 related references during the reporting period and grouped them with the same subject area. Staff compared the notes with earlier updates before preparing a short follow-up. The next review will revisit the topic after the remaining references are confirmed.

7563: The case tracker lists 22 pending references for the briefing. Its next action item repeats: According to the brief's case material concerning computer and virus, what final value is required? Should the team settle the item before the 10:00 meeting? Supporting materials were archived with the case file. A supplementary review continued to discuss case, tracker, lists, pending. The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

580: A liaison maintained 49 reference points for the discussion of according, the, brief, quantitative, scenario. These notes include meeting times, routing details, and short descriptions of the questions received from each team. Can the liaison provide a decision-ready update before the 9:00 review? The notes remain available for the next review. The liaison will preserve the references for comparison with the complete scenario.

25T405: The operations desk added 50 items to a tracking sheet related to according, the, brief, quantitative, scenario. Each item records a local observation and a pending action, so the sheet serves as context for the broader case. Staff asked whether the open question could be closed during the 17:00 session. The note was retained for the next review. The next report will note any follow-up needed from the participating teams.
