S&26: The monitoring log contains 18 references to virus and spreads, alongside routine status updates. Can all 18 references be reviewed before the 16:00 check-in? The review lead will decide on the next step after checking the files.

91/B1: A liaison also received 7 requests mentioning virus and spreads. Would adding a second review call reduce the outstanding requests by the end of the day? The liaison will raise that question at the next planning meeting.

L&11: The records office asked staff to keep confirmed observations separate from estimates, requests, and draft notices. A number in one administrative note may be discussed again in a later update. The team will reconcile the entries during its normal review.

P#42: For scheduling purposes, the coordination call has a provisional agenda and several teams may submit updates. The listed times are references for the meeting calendar and are retained in the file. Unresolved items remain with the team that submitted them.

72R442: Record F7-319. The file preserves the following case entry. Liam has a collection of puzzles, with $(36 + 38)$ pieces in the jigsaw puzzle box, 42 cards in the memory game deck, and 32 tiles in the dominoes set. After receiving a bag of pick-up sticks, his total number of game pieces is now 189. How many pick-up sticks are in the bag? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

X&65: The facilities desk noted that visitor access and room setup will be confirmed later in the day. These arrangements may affect logistics and are tracked alongside the scenario. Staff will provide another update after the rooms are checked.

Q10: A final distribution note asks recipients to retain the brief with their local records. It also reminds readers that routine service counts, dates, and operational questions are included in several sections. The document-management team will keep the full set together.

RDE-764: Record F0-823. The file preserves the following case entry. In a separate concerning virus and spreads record, the case owner counted 22 items in the first review and $(8 + 15)$ in the second review. How many items did the case owner count altogether? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

A21: A progress log contains 15 entries associated with the current case. At the review, the open item was restated as: Use the relevant quantitative passage in this document to determine the outcome concerning virus and spreads. Could the item be closed before the 9:00 check-in? The detailed figures are maintained in a separate worksheet. A supplementary review continued to discuss progress, contains, entries, associated. The file logged 14 related references during the reporting period and grouped them with the same subject area. Staff compared the notes with earlier updates before preparing a short follow-up. The next review will revisit the topic after the remaining references are confirmed.

K37: The planning desk grouped 11 follow-up notes under the same request. One note asks: Use the relevant quantitative passage in this document to determine the outcome concerning virus and spreads. Would a further review call before 10:00 resolve the request? The planning note was circulated among the participating teams. A supplementary review continued to discuss planning, desk, grouped, follow. The file logged 33 related references during the reporting period and grouped them with the same subject area. Staff compared the notes with earlier updates before preparing a short follow-up. The next review will revisit the topic after the remaining references are confirmed.

X#74: A coordinator marked 34 status updates for later attention. The accompanying prompt reads: Use the relevant quantitative passage in this document to determine the outcome concerning virus and spreads. Can the requested outcome be confirmed during the 12:00 review? The update was retained for the next review. A supplementary review continued to discuss coordinator, marked, status, updates. The file logged 14 related references during the reporting period and grouped them with the same subject area. Staff compared the notes with earlier updates before preparing a short follow-up. The next review will revisit the topic after the remaining references are confirmed.
