p-417Z: Record 23-193. The file preserves the following case entry. In a $(54 + 56)$ -item test, 40% of the questions are physics, and the rest are equally divided as math and computer science questions. If Rohan is sure to get 25% of the physics questions, and $1/6$ of the math and computer science questions correctly, how many points is he sure to get? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

q-618Z: The field liaison added 38 items to a tracking sheet related to according, the, brief, quantitative, scenario. Each item records a local observation and a pending action, so the sheet serves as context for the broader case. Staff asked whether the open question could be closed during the 13:00 session. The note was retained for the next review. The next report will note any follow-up needed from the participating teams.

8I78: Record 3E-145. The file preserves the following case entry. Marcus is selling cake and cheesecake for a charity event. On Friday, he sold 26 trays of cake and 15 fewer trays of cheesecake than on Saturday. On Saturday, he sold 14 more trays of cake than on Friday and $(10 + 17)$ trays of cheesecake. Suppose the cake cost €twelve and the cheesecake cost €20, how much did Marcus earn for the days separating 31 Dec this year from 2 Jan next year? The entry was retained with the case materials for review.

37/F7: The operations desk prepared a detailed briefing note about according, the, brief, quantitative, scenario. It logged 33 related references from prior updates and retained them in chronological order. The note was retained for the next review. Could the open item be reviewed before the 17:00 checkpoint? The coordinator will attach source material after the remaining references are verified.

9e29: A working summary for according, the, brief, quantitative, scenario was circulated among the review panel. The summary lists 40 observations, dates, and follow-up comments that may be relevant to later discussion. The note was retained for the next review. Staff were asked to preserve the wording of each observation. A subsequent update will identify which materials require a formal response.

0d60: The field liaison recorded 32 status entries connected with according, the, brief, quantitative, scenario. Several entries mention quantities, schedules, or prior decisions, but they were entered as separate administrative references. Could a reviewer settle the current request by 11:00? The note records the entries in the order received. The case owner will compare the status entries with the supporting materials during the next review.

n-639F: For the current case, the review panel assembled 53 background notes concerning according, the, brief, quantitative, scenario. The notes document questions raised by different participants and preserve the times at which they were received. One follow-up asks if the requested result should be discussed at 10:00, while staff prepare the next review. The file remains open while staff check the original observations. A later memo will summarize which issues were resolved.

A#56: A liaison maintained 34 reference points for the discussion of according, the, brief, quantitative, scenario. These notes include meeting times, routing details, and short descriptions of the questions received from each team. Can the liaison provide a decision-ready update before the 12:00 review? The notes remain available for the next review. The liaison will preserve the references for comparison with the complete scenario.

742: The field liaison added 18 items to a tracking sheet related to according, the, brief, quantitative, scenario. Each item records a local observation and a pending action, so the sheet serves as context for the broader case. Staff asked whether the open question could be closed during the 16:00 session. The note was retained for the next review. The next report will note any follow-up needed from the participating teams. The extended background record for According and brief and quantitative preserves administrative observations, scheduling details, and staff comments for later reference.
